Dear Mr. Weisberg:

I enjoyed unusually hearing you talk on the Long John Show this morning. You certainly were treated shabbily but remained a courageous gentleman throughout.

I called the station to object to the treatment you were given and thought I was the lone voice of objection. But I decided it would do no good because even after numerous telegrams protesting the unfairness of it all, it continued to be three against one — and such rude three!

Yours very well and when I get a bit ahead — I shall be sending for your book.

Sincerely yours,

Rebecca D. Ruggles

P.S. I am hoping your book will stimulate further investigation — and before Ruby is legally murdered!
